

STABBED TO DEATH BY HIS COUSIN AS WIVES LOOK ON

Mystery in Sudden Hostility Between Enright, Slayer, and Shanahan, Dead.

William Enright and David Shanahan, first cousins and intimate friends since childhood, lived in opposite apartments at No. 27 Lexington avenue, Brooklyn. Their wives also were first cousins, and the two families were devoted to each other until Christmas Eve, when there came some sort of coolness between the two men.

The wives used their influence and a peace treaty was patched up over Christmas. The two Shanahan children, the one Enright child and the two wives had a merry Christmas, but Enright and Shanahan had little to say to each other.

Both men were employed as linemen by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company. They went to work as usual yesterday, but not together as they had been doing for more than ten years. They also returned to their homes alone.

Enright, his wife and small daughter were in the front room of their home about 7.30 o'clock when there came a pounding on the door leading to the hall. Suddenly the lock was forced and Shanahan, purple with anger, entered. A fight started, the wives begging the men to stop and the children screaming. Chairs and a table were overturned. Enright seized a table knife from a sideboard and drove the blade into Shanahan's left side, just below the heart.

Shanahan sank to the floor. His wife and Mrs. Enright sent for doctors and the police. Shanahan had been killed instantly.

Enright did not know he had killed his old friend. He was found in a rear room, his head in his hands. At Gates avenue police station he was looked up, charged with murder.

Questioned by the police Mrs. Enright and Mrs. Shanahan told the nature of the quarrel had been kept from them.

BURGULARS MISS WEDDING PRESENTS HIDDEN IN ATTIC.

After Getting Xmas Gifts, They Ransack New Yorker's Summer
Home on Second Expedition.

GREENWICH, Conn., Dec. 27.—People living here in the neighborhood of the summer home of Walter A. Hughes of the W. T. Hitech, Incorporated, firm of insurance brokers of New York, notified the police, to-day, that they thought burglars had been through the place.

The police visited the house and found the front door broken in. Every room in the house had been ransacked. When Mr. Hughes was called from New York, he found missing a fur overcoat, a gold-headed cane, a stickpin and the contents of the sideboard.

Mr. Hughes said he thought the burglars had been after the wedding presents of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Kehon, which were left in the house after her wedding there, a month ago. The presents had been hidden in the attic, which the thieves had apparently not thought it worth while to search.

The police believe the robbery was

The case is made of solid 14K gold through and through, and so stamped by the maker, so there can be no mistake. However, we will sell these watches at $12 each, with the distinct understanding that the purchaser can go direct to any retail jeweler or dealer, any mail order house or jeweler, and if he can duplicate it or get one of equal value for less than $22.00 in one or one hundred lots, we will refund the money upon request. Remember, we do not promise to deliver our watches until after 10 o'clock to-morrow night. Any one calling before that time will not be disappointed.

We will present FREE to every purchaser of a "Watch Protector." Also call your attention to the fact that if you pay more than $22.00 for a watch, you are paying too much. We can prove it. Your own jeweler is the judge.
